

THE GAZETTE.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 5.

INMATES OF STATE INSTITUTIONS.

Reports from the various charitable, penal and reformatory institutions of the state for the month of August, have been received by the state board of supervision. The following will show the population at the beginning and close of the month:

Beginning.	Close.
State hospital for the insane.	491 509
State reformatory for men.	663 654
State reformatory for women.	211 212
Industrial school for boys.	84 85
State public school.	212 213

It is readily seen that the additions and losses of the population in the state have been quite evenly divided the past month. The greatest number in the state prison at any one time during the month was 430, and in the industrial school for boys 210. The state public school at Sparta is proving a magnificent state charity. Ten per cent. of the children that have been received at the institution have been taken out by persons agreeing to care for them. It is not likely that any more buildings will be needed at Sparta than those now under erection. When completed, there, with those already in use, will accommodate about two hundred pupils, and it is the intention of the state board of supervision to place children in homes as far as possible so that at no time will the number on hand exceed the capacity of the school. Already twenty-seven children have been placed in good homes.

A FIRST NOTE WHICH IS GOOD.

It is announced that a movement has been set on foot by the republican club of New York city, for the holding of a national convention of republicans, soon after the coming November election in that state. This is the first note of active preparation for the campaign of next year. The secretary of the New York club has received, it is said, assurances of an attendance of 1,000 delegates, representing 200 clubs. It is announced that other interesting features of the movement is that since it was broached forty new clubs have sprung up, and there is a great interest manifested in Kentucky, Tennessee, Missouri, and Virginia, in all of which states republican workers are acquiring the best way to organize and form clubs. It is from these clubs that the republican ranks will recruit their young and aggressive workers, and it will be greatly to their advantage if some general plan can be formulated at this convention for their organization and government, so that they may be united for effective work.

There is strength in organization, and a convention of the kind suggested by the republican club of New York city will do much to promote zeal among republicans everywhere. It is a good thing to organize before the next national convention is held, and thereby get the party in excellent condition.

SWEEPING CLEAN.

Talking about the political broom of the administration sweep clean, one can find suspicious examples of the thorough work in every state and territory in the Union. The stiffness of the broom when it came to sweep republicans out of office in Dakota is illustrated by the testimony of the appointment clerk in the post office department at Washington. In talking of the sweeping process in that territory he proudly boasts, "Dakota has been well cared for. The whole number of post offices in the territory on August 1 was 1,032. There have been 810 changes made since the year ending June 30, 1885. That looks like taking care of the faithful." Which it certainly does. The remaining 212, he says, represent "little more than the actual increase in the offices. There are only forty insignificant post offices in the entire territory which do not seem to have been changed during this administration for various reasons."

Such testimony as this comes from other territories and from all the states. Senator Voorhees says there is not a single republican in a presidential postoffice in Indiana. There are only three in Wisconsin. There are not half a dozen in the state of New York. Not one in Virginia, and in the south they have been cleaned out completely. How strikingly beautiful is the saying of the president that "public office is a public trust."

An eastern free trade organ says the coal owners in Chicago are raising a painful cry over $5 coal, but at the same time they keep sending representatives to congress who vote to maintain the coal tariff. In the first place, the price of coal in Chicago has not been raised to $5. In the second place the tariff on coal is but 75 cents a ton, and there is no tariff on hard coal, the kind in most general use. The advance in coal the present year is not attributable, according to good authority, to any advance in its price at the mines, but to an increase of 50 cents a ton upon the freight rates west. The increased business activity of the country which has given such an impetus to vessel trade on the lakes, is sufficient to explain it.

The fact is, the eastern free trade organ (the Philadelphia Record) and the Chicago Tribune which endorsed the statement made by the Record do not propose to be fair on the coal question, or any other question touching the tariff. As was stated in the Gazette on Saturday, those papers, harping on the coal tariff, would not give their readers any facts regarding the tariff on coal, especially on anthracite, which is used almost exclusively in the homes of the people, where wood is not used. To give facts would knock their complaints on the coal tariff to the ground.

A druggist in Massachusetts is said to have discovered a drug which will not only quickly banish flies from houses, but will make speedy destruction of such insects as destroy plants, kill trees and the like; and it is said he has the promise, through the discovery, of an immense fortune, because there is an unending certainty in the deadly work of the fly. All this may be so, but it never the less tends to remind one of the French story which in a few words is as follows: Four flies were in search of a breakfast. One found some jelly and regaled himself. The third fly was not gone and the fly turned upon his back. The second fly, seeing the sad fate of his friend, resolved to eat plain bread. But there was so much ant in the bread that he, too, turned over and breathed his last. The third fly attacked a glass of beer, but the alcohol laid him cold. The fourth fly, seeing that everything eatable was tampered with, resolved to commit suicide. He found some German fly paper on which was inscribed "Death to flies." He partook freely, but the more he ate the better he felt. He stuck to the fly paper and lived to a good old age.

A COAL FAMINE.

It Is Thought to Be Imminent in the Northwest.

RAILWAYS HELD PARTLY RESPONSIBLE.

Their Failure to Furnish Transportation the Main Trouble—Higher Prices Sure to Result—Wood Dealers Take Advantage of the Situation.

MUCH DISTRESS FEARED. Chicago, Sept. 5.—The condition of the Chicago and general Western anthracite coal market is admitted by dealers in that city to be a most serious one. There is no question in their minds that before the close of the first day of October next the price will have reached $7.50 per ton, and soon after that, or about the time of the close of the year, will be a new price for hard coal in all sizes. While coal dealers are content to call the market a stringent one, consumers are beginning to look forward, with no little apprehension, to what in good England would be termed a coal famine. The dearth of anthracite, however, will in no manner be attributable to an otherwise bounteous nature, which must be looked to for a supply. The scarcity will be owing alone to the selfish manipulations of the product in the East and the heartless grasping of the railroads, and in fact the latter is the larger factor to the conspiracy. It is directly traceable to their manœvering that the deplorable lack of transportation facilities exists. Editor Russell, of the Black Diamond, a paper published in the interest of coal producers and dealers, says:

"There will be no famine. Every effort has been made on the part of the producers to come to the requirements of the market. This is shown in the fact that the production of the mines this year is nearly 2,500,000 tons in excess of the production up to this time last year. If there is a shortage in the West it is owing to a lack of transportation facilities."

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 5.—The coal dealers in this city and Minneapolis have given it out that they will allow the price of coal to fall to a point that will render it a luxury and prevent poor people from depending on it for fuel. The people have registered a vigorous kick, but the dealers have gone into a pool and they quietly sit around and grin while the people founder. At this time last year anthracite coal could be bought here for $7 a ton. The figure now asked is $11 a ton, and it is given out that this price will be advanced to $14 before the winter is over.

It is anticipated that there will be more or less suffering during the coming winter under these conditions. For a wood fire in this Northwestern climate during the months of December, January and February is hardly equal to the demand of the human system for comfort. Besides, that wood is worth $8 a cord, and the dealers threaten to advance the price $2 before cold weather sets in.

It is anticipated that hard coal in Dakota will be worth $20 a ton next winter, and if that is the case suffering among the farmers in North Dakota west of the Red River Valley as far as the Montana line, in which district the wheat crop has been almost a total failure, must be fearful, for in this case there is no wood, and no winter passes over that region that is not marked by fearful blizzards and death through freezing.

Ray, Calaveras, Wis., Sept. 5.—The people in this immediate section who are accustomed to use coal as a fuel are considerably worried over prospective advances of the article. Present prices of hard coal are $9 per ton, against $7.50 at a corresponding date last season. Very few people have laid in any stock of the winter stock by reason of its scarcity. The prospective advances to January 1, are from $11 to $14 per ton. The consequence will be that coal will be dispensed with by at least two-thirds of the consumers and wood as a fuel substituted. The wood dealers have already commenced taking advantage of the situation and are making advances on that article more than proportionately.

Stout, Wis., Sept. 5.—A visit to the several coal dealers of this city revealed the fact that but one of the principal merchants in this community had ordered a full supply, and that much lighter than in past years, owing to the exorbitant figures. Therefore the best of Scranton and Lehigh hard coal was laid down at $7.50 per ton. Now it cannot be had for less than $11.

LABOR'S DRESS PARADE.

The Working-Men of Pittsburgh and Vicinity Turn Out to the Number of Fifty Thousand.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Sept. 5.—The labor organizations of Pittsburgh and vicinity were all in a street demonstration yesterday that surpassed any thing of the kind ever seen here. The object of the parade was to show the strength of the various trades-unions in order that there might be a big turn-out, many of the mills and factories closed down. The bright day added to the success of the demonstration, and when the procession passed down Fifth avenue at noon, it is estimated that fully 15,000 men were in line. The column was several miles long, and occupied nearly two hours in passing a given point. It embraced every trade union in the city, including the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers, Knights of Labor, Miners' Amalgamated Association, Builders' League, Journalists' union, International Typographical Union and German Trades Assembly.

The Chinese-American Bank. Chicago, Sept. 5.—The agents of the American syndicate in China which is about to establish a banking system under the Government's patronage to extend throughout the country, with control of the railroads, mines and telephone interests, passed through the city Saturday. The American head of the institution is Wharton Barker, of Philadelphia, but New York and Washington capitalists are interested. The concern has a capital of $14,000,000, of which the Chinese Government has subscribed about one-third.

Courts Investigation. Springfield, Ill., Sept. 5.—Postmaster General Smith has notified the Postmaster of the investigation of the matters referred to in the State Central Committee's resolutions, and proposes to "invest and report all charges" before the department in Washington or any representative sent by it to Springfield.

Suit for Damages. Jackson, Miss., Sept. 5.—A Mississippi politician named Oglesby has sued the telegraph company for $5,000 damages on account of the failure of an operator to forward a dispatch which might have affected nominations pending in a convention lately held at Hernando.

A "Drive-Well" War. Vincennes, Ind., Sept. 5.—The "drive-well war" has broken out here. An agent of the patentees is demanding a royalty of $10 on each well driven to 1850, and $10 on each well driven on an Indianapolis meeting and propose to make a fight.

I have been for several years a sufferer from hay fever and severe head colds, and have tried other remedies in hope of getting relief, but have found none that could compare with Ely's Cream Balm. I would not be without it for any ailment. It is simply wonderful in its effect upon the nasal organs. S. A. Bart, Wilmington, N. C.

I can cheerfully recommend Ely's Cream Balm to the suffering public for hay fever and stoppage of the ear passages. I have tried it and find it gives immediate relief.—J. E. Rector, 209 Rock street, Little Rock, Arkansas.

PEACEFUL SUBMISSION.

The Proposed New Meeting of the National League at Ennis, Ireland. Interfered with by the Police—The Big Procession Dispersed Quietly.

LONDON, Sept. 5.—Ten thousand persons assembled at Ennis yesterday to attend the meeting of the Irish National League. The police Saturday night took possession of the hill of Ballymore, where it was intended to hold the meeting. At two o'clock the procession, culminated by twelve bands of music, and including Messrs. Timothy Sullivan, Dillon, Cox, Shelly, William O'Brien and Philip Shanahan, all members of the House of Commons, and several priests, moved toward Ballymore hill, the approaches to which were guarded by soldiers and police. The procession, finding its further progress barred, halted in a field, and Messrs. Sullivan, Shanahan and O'Brien made addresses from their carriages. A group of lawyers, headed by Colonel Turner, divisional magistrate, rode up to where the procession had halted, and Colonel Turner ordered the meeting to disperse within five minutes. Mr. Shanahan landed. Colonel Turner a copy of the resolutions adopted by the meeting, claiming home rule, declaring adherence to Mr. Parnell, thanking the liberal party, pledging resistance to the prohibition of the league, and denouncing land-grabbing. Mr. Shanahan declared that the proceedings of the meeting were legal, and that if a collision occurred between the people and the troops he would hold Colonel Turner responsible. Colonel Turner replied that he was bound to execute his orders. After a parley the procession returned to Ennis and O'Brien addressed the crowd in O'Connell's square. The soldiers and police again appearing, the procession passed on to a hotel, which the leaders entered. The crowd then dispersed quietly.

AN OUTLAW'S FATE. Jack Turner, the Terror of Boll County, Ky., Assassinated.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 5.—Jack Turner, the desperate leader of a gang of desperadoes that have terrorized Boll and adjoining counties for nearly twenty years, is dead. This man is known to be the murderer of five men, the father-in-law of a brother-in-law, Marshal George Thomas and two others. For his last crime, the killing of Thomas, who with a posse of brave men went to the house of Maud Turner, Jack's brother, to effect the former's arrest on a charge of murder, he was arrested after considerable trouble, and conveyed to Pineville jail, and none of his band of desperadoes daring to help him out of the jail. The required bond money in cold cash. Saturday, as he was passing along the street opposite the Monroe House, six men supposed members of the Bowdler faction, which has been at war with the Turners for years, opened fire on the desperado, and when he was picked up fifteen Winchester rifle bullets were found in his head and neck and a heavy load of buckshot in his side. The Monroe House, at the hotel of which James the Cumberland river, formed a convenient means of escape for the avenging party, and they floated down the stream for some distance and made for the woods, where the crew of the boat was hidden. As there are numerous members of the Turner family in this vicinity, the end of the fighting is not yet.

OPENED TO SETTLEMENT. Wisconsin Lands Hitherto Reserved for the Railroad, Thrown Open to Settlers.

EAU CLAIRE, Wis., Sept. 5.—Instructions received the United States land office at this place yesterday regarding the lands of the Wisconsin Central and Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha land grant lands to settlement by homestead and pre-emption entry. The lands granted are those within the Wisconsin Central and Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha lines, not previously selected and approved, and comprise about 325,000 acres, most of which is valuable pine lands. Entries will not be allowed until thirty days' notice has been published and the railway companies are allowed thirty days from the date of filing to show cause why the entries should not stand. Great excitement prevails, and a scramble will take place when the entries are receivable.

IN THE TOILS. Capture of a Man in San Francisco Charged with Embezzling $75,000 in Australia.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 5.—John H. Sturges was arrested here Saturday on a warrant from Australia, where he is charged with embezzling to the amount of $75,000. Sturges is a member of the firm of George Sturges & Co., wool brokers at Geelong, Victoria. He took advantage of the first high rating to make overdraws on the Union Bank to the extent of $50,000, and is also alleged to have negotiated $15,000 worth of forged notes. Losses in speculation had to be forgiven, as soon as the extradition papers can be received from Washington Sturges will be returned to Australia.

Trade Dollars. New York, Sept. 5.—Saturday was the last day of the six months during which the Government redeems trade dollars at par. During that time there have been no redemptions at the United States sub-treasury in this city 3,492,117 of these coins. Those who failed to redeem such as they may have had in their possession will lament their inability to realize on them only their intrinsic value as bullion. There was no monetary rush at the sub-treasury the last week, holders of the coin evidently having taken advantage of the order soon after it took effect.

Obtained Full Control. SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 5.—A controlling interest in the American Sugar Refining Company has been secured by the old minority stockholders, including men extensively engaged in sugar planting in the Sandwich Islands. The parties intend to be re-elected who led the recent revolution in Honolulu, and M. P. Jones, who has negotiated the transfer of stock, was chairman of the meeting which forced the King to change the minority.

Parties in want of wood will do well to call and learn our cash prices. We do not mean thirty days, which is sometimes called cash, for such accounts too often run six months, nor O. O. D. which means collect if parties can be found, but O. A. O. Cash Accompanying Order. We do not guess at the amount delivered but carefully measure each order.
Our prices on coal are as low as any man can afford to sell 2,000 pounds of good coal properly screened. We are very careful in selecting and handling our stock.
Many believe the retail dealer receives the long ton which adds greatly to his margin, when the fact is he receives only the short ton, and it is usually very short, and if he refuses to remit for shortage, when discovered, he is sure to pay dearly for it some time, but the consumer is guaranteed 2,000 pounds.

THE COUNTY FAIR.
The Prospects Good for a Successful Exhibition and a Large Gathering.
Timely Rains Help to Put Everything in Fine Order for Visitors.
Secretary Hainstreet is waiting a very broad smile to-day, and never fails to mention in conversation that to-day's rain has been a great help to the society in putting the grounds, especially the track, in fine shape for the exhibition. The secretary has been kept very busy to-day receiving the entries for exhibition, which in number are equal to any former fair. To-morrow morning the office will be removed to the fair grounds, where all entries must be made. Mr. Hainstreet is enthusiastic in the assertion that this fair will equal any of its predecessors.
The report having gone out that the wedding is to take place in a tent, the admission to which will be twenty-five cents, is emphatically denied by Mr. Hainstreet, who says the ceremony will take place from a platform directly in front of the grand stand, and in plain view of the assembled thousands. That the price of admission to the fair grounds, on Wednesday and Thursday has not been raised but will remain as advertised at twenty-five cents.
The superintendent in the various departments will be on the grounds at 8 o'clock to-morrow morning to give directions to exhibitors in placing their exhibits. The fair proper will open on Wednesday at 7:30 a. m., and all entries will close promptly at noon of that day. This will be the great day for children, and it has been designated.
